

Soley, Saborío, Fallas & Asociados (SSF&A) Expands Internationally Through Link To MSI Global Alliance.

Soley, Saborío, Fallas & Asociados (SSF&A) , (www.lawfirmcr.com) has concluded a membership agreement with leading international association of independent professional firms MSI Global Alliance, enabling both organisations to broaden their geographic service capabilities.

MSI Global Alliance (MSI) had announced in London the admission of Soley, Saborío, Fallas & Asociados (SSF&A), as well as all the other four law firm members of Central American law firm network Grupo Jurídico Centroamericano (GJCA) to its worldwide membership of independent law and accountancy firms. The agreement extends MSI's geographic coverage to Costa Rica by means of the acceptance of SSF&A, as well as to the rest of the Central American region with the acceptance of GJCA affiliates .

James Mendelssohn, MSI's Chief Executive, says: "Central American countries are fast opening up their markets to foreign investors and taking steps towards closer regional integration. It is therefore hugely important that the clients of our member firms are able to access leading Central American law firms that meet MSI's stringent quality and service standards and that share the same values as their own local advisors.

"The appointment of these respected, high calibre law firms demonstrates our commitment to building a strong membership in Latin America. All the firms within GJC are highly experienced in providing services including corporate law, intellectual property law, banking law, real estate law, constitutional law and dispute resolution to local and multinational companies."

GJC Chairman Elias Soley, Partner of Soley Saborío Fallas & Asociados (SSF&A) comments: "MSI Global Alliance presents us with a valuable opportunity to expand our firms' international practices and to assist MSI's worldwide members with matters in the Central American region by ensuring high quality professional support for all legal matters in our countries."

The agreement with GJC follows the admission last year of law firms García Menéndez Abogados in Buenos Aires and Campos Mello Pontes Vinci Schiller Advogados in Brazil, and demonstrates MSI's ambitions to provide multinational corporations in the Latin American region with a credible alternative to the large, multi-office law and accountancy firms.
